

Nailcare Academy

ANT LEARNING ACTIVITY MOD 4: SAFE WORKING PRACTICES

Matching

___ OPIM	1. Triggers a higher % of allergic reactions
___ The OSHA Standards	2. One-time use equipment and sundries
___ Bloodborne Pathogens	3. Series of vaccinations
___ Carriers	4. Pathogens which are transmitted via breath
___ Acute	5. Other potentially infectious materials, even if no actual exposure incidents have occurred
___ Latex	6. Designed to protect employees from hazards
___ Disposables	7. Ill persons that may or may not appear ill or have symptoms
___ Body Fluid	8. Pathogenic microorganisms in blood or body fluids
___ Hepatitis	9. Sudden and severe onset of an illness
___ Best Hepatitis Prevention	10. Blood
___ Airborne Pathogens	11. Refers to an inflammation of the liver

True or False

1. Wearing gloves does not guarantee prevention of transfer of infection. True
False
2. Vaccinations allow prevention against an exposed disease, True
False
3. The number of carriers is under control. True
False
4. Once infected with herpes one is infected for life. True
False
5. Herpes enters through the nail of the person. True
False
6. Asymptomatic which means “without symptom”. True
False
7. MRSA is not easily transferred. True
False
8. Persons colonized with MRSA are considered “carriers”. True
False
9. The first symptom of MRSA is blistering. True
False
10. Respiratory infections cause the least in absenteeism in the work place of any condition. True
False