

Nailcare Academy

ANT LEARNING ACTIVITIES - MODULE 5: PEDICURES FOR AT RISK CLIENTS

Matching

- |                      |   |
|----------------------|---|
| ___Immunosuppression | 1. Can cover ulcers so should not be fully removed by a technician.   |
| ___Vibration         | 2. Are swollen, twisted, and sometimes painful veins.   |
| ___Feather massage   | 3. Should not be a used in a footbath when no massage is indicated due to chronic conditions.   |
| ___Questionnaire     | 4. Condition of rough, dry feet.  |
| ___HIPAA             | 5. An umbrella term for arthritis causing indicating digits should not be pulled by the nail technician..                               |
| ___Evaluative        | 6. Clues of one of these conditions: persistent, recurrent infections, or severe infections by microbes that do not usually cause them. |
| ___Calluses          | 7. Foot exams prior to a pedicures in a salon is for these purposes only.   |
| ___Varicose          | 8. Light, rhythmic tapping motions with the fingers   |
| ___Rheumatoid        | 9. A health record filled out in the client's handwriting   |
| ___Xerosis           | 10. Assures individuals' health information is protected.   |

True or False

- |   |               |
|---|---------------|
| 1. Chronically ill clients usually do not require special care and precautions    | TrueFalse |
| 2. A soakless pedicure can be the best alternative for the chronically ill client | TrueFalse |
| 3. New Client Questionnaires are only required for ill clients.                   | TrueFalse |
| 4. Soaking can increase dryness by wicking moisture out of the skin.              | TrueFalse |
| 5. Jets should be left off if no massage is recommended.                          | TrueFalse |

Nailcare Academy

ANT LEARNING ACTIVITIES - MODULE 5: PEDICURES FOR AT RISK CLIENTS

- |  |               |
|--|---------------|
| 6. When booking, clients should be informed no shaving 24 prior to their appointment                       | TrueFalse |
| 7. A friendly podiatrist will never verbally degrade a referring pedicurist who is trained to work safely. | TrueFalse |
| 8. Releasing an ingrown nail is legal in some states in the US.  | TrueFalse |
| 9. Pregnancy does not always counter the client having a pedicure.   | TrueFalse |
| 10. Torque is flattening the nail during incorrect trimming.   | TrueFalse |